Enumeration

From the 19th of May through to the 28th of May, enumeration of eligible electors was conducted for the constituency's fifty-five polling divisions. Pursuant to section 26 of the Act, constituency enumerators sat on June 15, 2006 to make necessary revisions to the voters' lists. As a result of these efforts, 10,513 Weyburn-Big Muddy residents were declared eligible to vote, as established on the revised voters' list. In addition, pursuant to section 68 of the Act, eligible electors not included on the revised voters' list were entitled to vote by declaration.

Polling

To facilitate the electorate's participation in the Weyburn-Big Muddy by-election, an advance poll was conducted on the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th of June. Regular polling stations were open from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. CST on June 19, 2006, enabling the constituency's 10,513 eligible voters the opportunity to exercise their democratic franchise. Eligible voters unable to attend either a regular or advance poll were entitled to vote by absentee ballot.

Electoral Results

Unofficial electoral results were announced on the evening of June 19, 2006, resulting in Mr. Dustin Duncan, Saskatchewan Party, being declared Member-elect. The New Democratic Party, Sask. Section candidate forfeited his deposit, pursuant to section 47 of the Act, for not obtaining at least one half of the total number of valid votes cast for the candidate elected.

On July 3, 2006, the constituency returning officer tabulated the results of votes cast by way of hospital poll and absentee ballots. These figures were then reflected in the constituency results concluding the final count. Upon completion of the final count, on July 12, 2006, the constituency returning officer made a Return to the Writ of Election. On July 21, 2006, the Office published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 102, No. 29) notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the name of the candidate elected.

New Initiatives

By-Elections are a useful time to test out possible innovations or pilot projects on a small scale. Some new initiatives for the Weyburn-Big Muddy by-election include the use of:

- Posters to recruit enumerators;
- Pre-writ action plans by the returning officer;
- An access-based election daily operational plan (adapted from another jurisdiction);
- Sending new releases to the media;
- Radio advertising;

- Canada Post electronic statement of mail to forward absentee ballot kits to absentee voters in Canada as well as for outside of Canada;
- Voter Information Cards (VICs) with poll location and advance poll location mailed by Canada Post to all voters who had been enumerated in all regular polls. The VICs were mailed prior to the start of the advance polls;
- Magnifying glasses at the poll for voters with some degree of visual impairment;
- Cardboard ballot boxes;
- Longer standardized office hours for Returning Office;
- Internet access for Returning Office;
- Mobile Polls which visit several small personal care homes in the constituency (previously only large personal care facilities had their own half day or full-day poll), and;
- Post-Election Debriefing with Returning Officer and Election Clerk (via written report and in-person).

Complaint

During the by-election, an official from the New Democratic Party, Sask. Section caucus office phoned to say that an advertisement had been placed in error in a newspaper published within the Weyburn-Big Muddy constituency. The Chief Electoral Officer reviewed this matter and referred it to the Public Prosecution Division for consideration. Public Prosecution Division determined that a prosecution was not warranted in this case even though the letter of the law had been apparently violated.
